Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

A New Wealth Tax, Coming Soon to a State Near You

People are leaving California, New York, and other liberal havens by the thousands. Contrary to what people think, millionaires are people too and want to save their money. After all, they didn't get rich by giving it away, especially to a government which does spends money like drunken sailors. However the California Legislature has figured out a new way to punish those who created wealth in this country – by taxing them after they move to greener pastures.

As per usual, don't believe me, hear it straight out of their own mouths

The Daily Signal came out with an excellent article laying out the facts that Joe Biden has been the worst president in this country's history – yes even worse than Woodrow Wilson. From inflation to the border, to the drug crisis getting worse, the numerous scandals, and way too many other things to mention here - <https://www.dailysignal.com/2023/01/23/6-failures-of-bidens-presidency-in-year-2/>

Updates From Richmond

Democrats have rejected SB 881, which would have allowed drug dealers to face felony homicide charges if they sold drugs to someone who then died of an overdose.

The House of Delegates passed HB 1377, which calls for any dead person to be barred from voting. Even a few Democrats voted for this.

Governor Glenn Youngkin has announced a cut in the grocery tax which went into effect on January 1 2023.

(Special shout out to Dave Bourne of Augusta County for his updates)
