Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Ben Cline Gets Major Legislation Passed

On December 12 of this year, Congress passed the Ensure Accountability in Agency Rulemaking Act. This act was brought forth because it has become apparent to people in both parties that the bureaucrats who really run this country are now often interpreting the laws in ways that were never meant. And that while elected representatives may write the law, bureaucrats have been interpreting the code for years in any way they choose.

This bill was written by our very own Ben Cline.

H.R. 5933 The Ensure Accountability in Agency Rulemaking Act would require that all rules proposed by federal agencies be reviewed, signed, and issued by an individual appointed by the President, and that person would be subject to Senate confirmation.

In 2022, Harriett Hageman defeated Liz Cheney in large part because Rep. Hageman could see that the laws being passed by Congress were being interpreted in a way totally different than the lawmakers originally meant for them to be interpreted. Taking on the Deep State is a Priority mission. And Ben Cline has been leading the fight, and given the fact that Ben's bill is bipartisan (a NE Democrat helped co-sponsor HR 357), stands a credible chance of passing the Senate.

The need to reign in the Deep State is paramount. From the Royal Examiner earlier this week: The disparity between the number of laws passed by Congress (143 in 2021) and the rules issued by federal agencies (3,257 in the same year) has been a growing concern. These agency rules collectively impose an estimated annual cost of $1.927 trillion, averaging a burden of $14,684 per U.S. household each year.

that we have his back here in the District. This bill that Ben has introduced and gotten through the 1st hurdle may be one of the most important pieces of legislation to pass in years.

Road to Impeachment

Last night, on a party line vote, the Full House of Representatives voted to open an inquiry into the impeachment of Joe Biden. This is the 1st step in a path towards the removal of Joe Biden. Will it succeed? I have no idea. But this is a start.

Boston Massachusetts City Council Discriminates Against Whites

Boston Massachusetts Mayor Michelle Wu was forced to offer an apology earlier today, for having a "holiday party" in which no "white" City Council Members were invited or allowed to attend. Calling it an "honest mistake", In this "Holiday Party for Person's of Color", it seems that the Mayor's Chief of Staff forgot to invite the white City Council members.

Yes it seems that the party of diversity is tolerant of everything other than the ancestors of those who made this country great.

For far too long, Democrats have been calling us racists, and we've sat back, taken it on the chin, and promised to do better. Enough is enough. From now on as long as I have breath in my lungs and the ability to send this newsletter, I'm going to publish each time some radical leftist discriminates against another. Be that discrimination based on color, religion, sex, or whatever the discrimination may be. We are in the fight of our lives and our children's lives, and we need to be exposing these people as the bigots that they are.

I remain
