Governor Blackface Goes Out With Egg on His Face

Governor Northam sure did go out with a big up yours to the good people of Virginia last week. As most of you are now aware, after the 30 hour I-95 shutdown, Governor Blackface had the nerve to blame us for his failures. Snow removal was not up to its usual good standards in the blizzard which occurred last Monday. Most likely because the administrations were changing and things which were supposed to occur had no oversight. This is not acceptable, but it is part of the human condition.

Most elected officials would take the blame, take the heat, and move on. But not Governor Blackface. He decided to blame We the People, who have to

From the article below, Northam says: "Everyone should sit back and say, 'Thank you so much' to our agencies,"

Northam thinks he should be allowed to be incompetent, and we serfs should thank him for it.

AOC Has COVID

Late last night, reports came out saying that famed socialist Congresswoman and Leader of the Squad Alexandria Ocasio Cortez contracted COVID. Unlike the radical leftists who want each of us to die from COVID, We do not know if she contracted the virus while vacationing in Florida without a mask (masks for thee but not for me) or in NYC, where mask mandates are a daily thing. I will not mock her or anyone who is potentially suffering from this deadly disease. However I will point out that AOC was vaccinated and received a booster shot. And would hope that Mr. Biden, the next time he gives a press conference, would stop calling this a pandemic of the unvaccinated and accept that we're going to have to figure out a way to live with this pandemic and cease calling this a pandemic of the unvaccinated.

Would also help if Mr. Biden would send the DoJ into look at what Mr. Fauci may have done to weaponize the virus. And once the DoJ saw what everyone else can see, arrest that madman and put him in front of a firing squad for having paid to weaponize the virus in a Wuhan lab.

Governor Youngkin and AG Jason Miyares to Sue the Biden Regime

Late Friday, Governor Youngkin and AG Jason Miyares announced their plans to sue the federal government - saying that the federal mandates on vaccines from OSHA (Occupational Safety and Health Administration) are unconstitutional. For more read here:

After the November elections in NYC, many people, including several Republicans I know, were praising the election of Mayor Eric Adams of NYC. Saying he'd be a breath of fresh air and would turn around the most disgusting aspects of the DeBlasio years. I replied to these people that Adams was a radical leftist, and took alot of grief from saying this.

Well here is Mr. Adams giving the right to vote to non-citizens. Which is dangerous for too many reasons to name. For more read here:
