Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

We Will Win Come November!

You're going to be hearing a few rumblings coming from some talking heads, both on the left and the "center right" saying that we may lose both the House and Senate races, or that if we win the House back, it will only be a small narrow victory.

Remember that these people are not true analysts, but are paid to get a point across, and that point is that the Trump/Conservative/America First movement is a failure, and thus must be discredited and that we need to moderate our message and thus the Trump movement must be doomed to failure.

1st off, there is no doubt that Mr. Biden has rebounded a bit in the polls. But that is only a temporary blip because he just wrote off up to $20,000 of college debt off for some progressives - so they're temporarily back on board. But that does not mean that Democrats will be coming out in force this November. To the contrary, our people are geared up and ready to vote.

Rasmussen has the GOP leading by 5% come November. Meaning it's highly

But there is a caveat. We need to stop trying to moderate our message and preach the type of message that Reagan preached. A government that governs best is the one that governs least. And we need to remind everyone that it was the "best and the brightest" who gave us the disaster in Afghanistan and who, have raised oil prices to the point where Putin figured that he could invade Ukraine and sanctions would not hurt because the price of a barrel of oil is so high.

Things aren't perfect mind you - we' need to do a better job of vetting candidates. But I'd much rather be in our predicament than in the one the Democrats have - everything from rising prices to slowing economy to a feckless foreign policy.

America Was a Better Place When the FBI Didn't Rig Elections

Going to leave this here - and read for yourself:

Another Never Trumper Republican Shows Their True Colors

Outgoing Congressman Adam Kinzinger, who also took on his constituents and lost (actually he didn't run again once he saw the writing on the wall) shows that the Never Trump Republicans are really just liberals hiding inside our own Party. Going along with Liz Cheney, Mr. Kinzinger said on a Sunday Morning Talk Show that he would have no problem supporting a radical leftist Democrat over a Trump Republican.
