Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

My Thoughts on The Goings on in Afghanistan.

been a national embarrassment for many of us. And seeing as I have family over there near Kabul, well it has been very rough for my family. I have some thoughts here which may be relevant, and wanted to share them with you. The first is an article I penned in the American Thinker - a conservative national publication which has often been quoted by Rush Limbaugh and Sean Hannity. The other is from an interview of yours truly in the NV Daily, the local liberal rag in Frederick/Warren/Shenandoah/Page.

Here There Everywhere Inside CD 6

Last night in Rockbridge County, the Party chose to endorse Morgan McCown for School Board in Kerrs Creek, and Scott Guise for Board of Supervisors from Kerrs Creek. Both are strong conservatives who will do the movement proud. Condolences to James Cook and Katiie Austin Brown.

Morgan is a lovely young lady who is the real deal, and shows great charisma and has been a leader in the movement against CRT in Rockbridge. Scott served in the Marine Corps (as did Morgan) and will really shake things up on the Rockbridge Board of Supervisors.

Both Scott and Morgan won with approximately 70+% of the vote of the

I was in Waynesboro last night speaking to the GOP Faithful there. Got to give an award to Jerry Wilson, who is one of the most amazing volunteers inside CD 6. Jerry does so many things for the movement that it would take hours to list. I was humbled to stand with him to present the award.

Thank you for allowing me to serve you as your Chair. Together we will take back Virginia
