Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Joe Biden Cares About Us - NOT

Biden is often called, "relatable" and the Empathizer in Chief. Not really sure why, but he is. However this is how much he cares about the average American: He laughed earlier this week when talking about a mom who lost 2 kids to fentanyl. Don't believe me, see for yourself:

RONA Came From Wuhan

Energy study recently came out that agrees with us that the COVID virus came from a lab in Wuhan. Don't wait up past bedtime waiting for your apology.

Professor Cheney

Fresh off her rout this past year, the University of Virginia has offered a spot to Liz Cheney, as a teacher of "practice" at the UVA Center for Politics (run by leftist Larry Sabato). Not really sure what that means, a professor of practice. Will she teach them how to practice talking down to one's constituents? Will she teach people how to practice having your enemies shoot at you from all directions?

Our Own Ben Cline with Steve Bannon

Last week, Ben Cline went to Yuma to do what the President should be doing - going to Yuma Arizona to see the border for himself. Ben gives a rather compelling story of how bad the border is, and what needs to be done. Ben also lays out a telling statistic - 1/2 of the population of Virginia has come across the border illegally since Biden took office (aka nearly 5 million people) Thank you Ben Cline for telling us what we need to know and standing up for American values.
