Washington Post Admits COVID No Longer a Pandemic of the

The Washington Post has been forced to admit that the COVID pandemic is no longer a "Pandemic of the unvaccinated. In one of the few acts of actual journalism that the Post has performed over the past 10-40 years, the Post has finally admitted a truth about COVID, and that is COVID is not a pandemic of the unvaccinated - admitting that the majority of COVID patients have been fully vaccinated. Now, don't think that this means the Post has had a change of heart and is getting away from their leftist ideology. They're actually doubling down on it. They're trying to now say that the pandemic, while being a pandemic of the vaccinated, shows that the vaccine works? Please don't ask me to explain that "logic". But if you want, feel free to read this for yourself:

On this subject, the Washington Examiner had a great article yesterday - on talking about how the COVID lockdowns were all for show and little else. The article does a great job of reminding everyone that yes the COVID virus is less lethal than before, but that happens during epidemics, that the virus, in order to survive, must stop killing the host. Gee, if only our brilliant elitists in Washington DC and State Capitols had figured this out before - or actually read history books? Or spoken to someone not named Fauci?

Challengers to Ronna Romney McDaniel!

Finally - there are challengers to Ronna Romney McDaniel. 1st off, Mike Lindell has put his hat in the ring to replace Ronna McDaniel. And over the weekend, California attorney Harmeet Dhillon has announced she's running to replace Ronna McDaniel. There is also credible talk that former NY Congressman Lee Zeldin will put his hat in the ring also. While I'm not going to endorse anyone just yet, I will say this much - Ronna Romney McDaniel has been an absolute disgrace, and I implore each member of the Virginia RNC Delegation to choose anyone other than Ronna McDaniel.

For the record, I have been and will continue to reach out to the members of the Virginia Delegation to the Republican National Committee and telling them - subject, and while I may not have responded to each one, the fact is that pretty much everyone who has contacted me on this subject is in agreement that Ms. McDaniel needs to be replaced. Now - for those of you supporting Ronna McDaniel, I'd love to hear from you and learn why you think differently, and your reasons for supporting Ms. McDaniel. I'd seriously love to hear why anyone thinks that Ms. McDaniel needs to remain in her job. We're fair minded here and want to hear all opinions on this subject.

School Board Member Melanie Salins

From time to time, I will be featuring prominent Republican/conservative elected officials on here to thank them for all their hard work. Today we honor Warren County School Board Member Melanie Salins, who has done an amazing job taking on the woke bureaucracy inside Warren County, and has been listed as a heroine for School Choice by the Virginia for Educational Freedom Association. And yes, that is Melanie's picture listed above.

RIP to a Dear Friend

Earlier this week, Tommy Moser, aka Mr. Donna Moser of Rockingham County, left us to go home to Heaven. Tommy had been sick for quite some time. Cards can be sent to Donna Moser, 208 Abbott Circle Harrisonburg Va. 22801

Thank you for allowing me to serve you as your Chair. Together we will take back Virginia

your servant
