Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Now It's Over

Last night, New Hampshire gave a large victory to our 45th President, Donald Trump. Try as she might, Nikki Haley was not able to overcome the Trump wave, and, unless a miracle occurs, Donald Trump will be the nominee of the Republican Party in 2024 for President. With over 94% of the vote counted, Trump has an 11.1% lead, and that lead has been in the 10-11% range since they started counting the votes.

As things currently stand, there is no path to victory for Nikki Haley. The next 2 nomination events are the Nevada Caucus (where Haley is not participating, and the US Virgin Islands. Then comes the South Carolina primary. You'd think that in a state where Haley used to be governor, Haley would have a good chance to win. Yet both US Senators from SC (Lindsay Graham and Tim Scott) have endorsed Trump, and earlier this week Congresswoman Nancy Mace endorsed Trump. Currently Trump is ahead in the polls by approximately 30% (according to Real Clear Politics). Trump is the 1st Republican Presidential candidate in modern history to win both Iowa and New Hampshire. Sooner rather than later, Haley's ability to fundraise will vanish.

energized. Your work to try and get Nikki Haley elected has been admirable. But it is time that everyone faces facts. Trump will be the nominee.

Megyn Kelly did a fascinating interview on Sky News Australia which was broadcast an hour or 2 ago. Ms. Kelly explains the American electorate and the GOP electorate very well, better than 99% of other so called journalists. And explains why Haley never had a chance, and the mindset of the modern day GOP. It's worth a listen.

Around the District

As most of you know, I make it a point to attend GOP Unit meetings inside CD 6 every chance possible. Last night I had the opportunity to attend the Frederick County GOP Meeting, and the subject of ranked choice voting came up. It is very obvious to anyone who listens that the GOP rank and file is opposed to ranked choice voting. I share this view, as does most of the 6th Congressional District.

RNC Virginia Committeewoman Patti Lyman was directly responsible for ensuring that the Republican National Committee passed a resolution opposing ranked choice voting. Something that the Republican Party of Virginia tabled for reasons I cannot fathom.

I explained to the Frederick County Committee that the entire elected portion of the 6th District Committee that is part of State Central that our entire delegation opposes ranked choice voting and this is a hill I and my elected delegation to RPV opposes unanimously. So the next time you see State Central Members Randy Gilbert, Steve Kurtz, Craig Scott, Craig Lilly or Patrick Sullivan (PS was not on State Central at the time but would have voted with us) please take a minute to thank them for listening to the grassroots.

The District Convention will be on May 11. Rockingham Fairgrounds. I will go into more detail about the upcoming convention in my next newsletter.

Also in the next Valley Patriot there will be an update from Richmond. Our delegation is doing great things and you need to know about them.

Thank you for allowing me to serve you as your Chair. Together we will take back Virginia
