Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

After the last few weeks, I can honestly say that I've never been more proud of my Congressman Ben Cline than over these past few weeks. During a time of horrible upheaval and massive distrust in our system of government, Ben has been a steady hand and a bright light in the fight to keep our Constitutional system of checks and balances in place.

Ben rightly signed onto the Texas lawsuit as a "friend of the court", along with over 1/2 of his fellow Republicans, and the House GOP Freedom Caucus. Ben also correctly refused to support Nancy Pelosi's bid to legalize marijuana, which has shown to be destructive in multiple states where pot is legal. Ben did however sign onto HR 3797, which would have granted further study to the medical benefits of cannabis, something that everyone should be able to agree on. Ben supports a movement which would effectively disallow the moving of the US Embassy from Jerusalem back to Tel Aviv. Ben has also been supportive of HR 8265, which would reauthorize the PPP program - thus assisting small businesses and giving the economy a much needed jump start after Democratic Governors

Where do we go from here?

Earlier this week, I was interviewed in the Daily News Register Online about Ben Cline's support of Trump. Well both myself and my Democratic counterpart. Shocking but we tend to disagree on issues, which is fine - and to be expected. However my counterpart, a Mr. Alleyn Harned, seems to have deluded himself into thinking that someone using the Court system is thus attempting a coup. However Mr. Harned conveniently forgets that his party, under the leadership of Nancy Pelosi and Chuck Schumer, attempted that exact same thing with a bogus impeachment in late 2019 and earlier this year. Mr. Harned really should be ashamed of himself and apologize to the good people of Harrisonburg and Rockingham County for his rather foolish words.

In the article, I again called for an audit of the entire voting system of Virginia, because let's be frank here, does anyone really trust the election results statewide? I have even had a few intellectually honest Democrats come to me and say they feel that what happened in Henrico County with the 14,416 ballots found on a thumb drive doesn't pass the smell test. And given the irregularities that occurred in Lynchburg and in Roanoke County, the Northam regime really should try to do something to actually serve the good people of Virginia, to ensure that our election process is as fool proof as possible.

Here is a link to the article: https://www.dnronline.com/news/local/clines-support-for-election-lawsuit-draws-support-opposition/article_6f92fc4f-f4d8-5f41-ac57-779f821a4b83.html Please take a few minutes and comment on the need for an audit of the entire voting system in Virginia.

I'd like to take this time to thank Senator Amanda Chase for doing the right thing and agreeing to participate in the 2021 Convention. Doing so will only help her win the Governor's race in November 2021. (NOTE - THIS IS NOT AN ENDORSEMENT OF SENATOR CHASE OR ANY HINT THAT I AM ENDORSING OR VOTING FOR ANY CANDIDATE OVER ANOTHER - It is just a recognition of the fact that a united party has a better chance of winning)

In early 2021, the 6th Congressional District will be holding a series of 3 candidate forums for each statewide office. Details will be determined in the weeks and months to come, and all candidates for the GOP nomination will be invited to participate. Moderators will be chosen from the three regions of our District.

Thanks from the bottom of my heart to each of you for all the hard work you are doing, and are going to do. It is only with your help that we will take back Virginia!

I remain your servant

S John Massoud

6th District Republican Party Chairman
