Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

It Will Never Be Enough

The permanent victimhood crowd will never be happy. No matter what, there will always be another reason to complain. As many of you may be aware, the state of California is talking about giving reparations to Black residents of the state, to apologize for both slavery and for subsequent discrimination over the years.

Unless I'm very wrong here, no one who stands to benefit here has ever been a slave. The USA is still the greatest country ever founded. Yet the permanent victimhood lobby will never be satisfied until we are ruined as a nation. The victimhood Task Force wants to give $360,000 per person who ever had an California was a United State. There is an outside chance that California had slaves when it was a part of Mexico in the early 1800's (albeit not likely as Mexico had made slavery illegal a few decades before the USA did – but that law was not well enforced).

But the Victimhood Industrial Complex now wants $5,000,000 per person for each African American who lives in California. And now “Reverend” Tony Pierce wants $5,000,000 per African American in California. Again, no one arguing for reparations has ever been a slave. Now, we do have some people who have been sex trafficked, but we are not talking about them or what they have had to endure. We have people in the Valley who have been trafficked. We should be working to stamp out sex trafficking, not re-litigating the 1860's.

Go Woke Go Broke – It's More Than Just a Mantra

Corporations, which used to be in business to both make money and to provide a service or a product, are now becoming more and more social engineering offices which are now supposed to satisfy every whim of each radical leftist. From diaper companies supporting Planned Parenthood to Silicon Valley Bank funding each insane green technology idea – corporations are soon going to be finding that in supporting these nutty causes, they are hurting their own shareholders, something which cannot last forever.

A group called 2nd Vote Value Investments did an analysis of which companies are most profitable, and the analysis found that companies which were issue neutral did better than did woke companies.

Some Thoughts About the Tennessee Shooting

As most of you are aware by now, a transgender named Audrey Hale, a former student at Covenant Christian School, went into their former school armed to the teeth, and shot up the school, killing 6. Radical leftists are trying to blame conservatives for this, saying that it is us who have caused all the hatred and between race, religion, sex, and pretty much everything else. For a confused person like Audrey, who had some mental issues and had planned this out for quite some time, the end result is not shocking. Audrey thought that having the gender change surgery would be the cure, and as we all now know, having the surgery seldom is a cure for what ails these people. But having radical leftists stoke their anger at Christians certainly does not help anyone.

Of interest – Nashville Police are perfectly fine with giving us the bodycam of the officers taking down Hale. But they are not fine with releasing Hale's manifesto. Very odd. One can only wonder what is being hidden from us.

Governor Youngkin In CD 6

Earlier this week, Governor Glenn Youngkin was in Roanoke Virginia at the Round Hill School to formally sign SB 943 (sponsored by Senator Dave Suetterlein), and HB 1963 (sponsored by Delegate Chris Runion). HB 1963 requires the Virginia Department of Medical Assistance to people with disabilities can have more flexibility in their lives.

SB 943 requires public schools to identify on their websites which faculty member/s are responsible for special ed planning and coordination.

Thank you Delegate Runion and Senator Suetterlein for all your hard work, and thank you Governor Youngkin for paying a visit to the District.

Sooner rather than later, I will be writing to everyone about the need to elect good Constitutional Officers. But that will be for another time. Thank you for allowing me to serve you as your Chair. Together we will take back Virginia.

I remain

your servant
