Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

RIP Diamond

Earlier this week, Lynette Hardaway of Diamond and Silk (aka Diamond) left us to be with the Lord. She was 51 years old. Diamond and Silk became famous during the Trump administration for calling out the Democrat party in hilarious ways. These 2 brave women, who received so much hate on the Internet and in real life, made it easier for non whites to support both Donald Trump and Republicans, and did so much to remind everyone that it was the Republican party that freed the slaves, bestowed citizenship on every person born in the USA, ensured that blacks could vote, and then ensured women had the right to vote.

Diamond will be missed.

Leading Member of the GOP gets what's coming to him.

Chair of the Homeland Security Committee. However Mr. Crenshaw forgot what a terrorist truly is by calling the 20 Members who all voted against McCarthy for Speaker “terrorists”. He lost that Chairmanship to Mark Green – Freedom Caucus Member. Mr. Crenshaw will now lead oversight of DHS and all things related to terrorism. Let us hope that Mr. Crenshaw learns what the definition of terrorist is. A terrorist is not someone who you disagree with. A terrorist is someone who “uses unlawful violence and intimidation, usually against private citizens, in the pursuit of political aims” (from the Oxford Dictionary). Those words do not mean someone who doesn’t vote the way you may prefer they vote.

Once again, let us hope and pray that Mr. Crenshaw has learned a lesson from his boorish choice of words.

From Ros Poplar of the Shenandoah County GOP

Ros Poplar, a good friend of mine from Shenandoah County, like so many of us, was frustrated with how one sided the media was in our local newspapers. But instead of carping and doing nothing, Ros decided to take over the Op-Ed page of the NV Daily, and is now a columnist who writes for several different news publications. Including a couple that I write for as well.

Here is Ros' latest, talking about the importance of the GOP Creed. Something that all elected officials need to remember - that fiscal restraint must be imposed at ALL LEVELS OF GOVERNMENT - including local.
