Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Victory for RPV Over Ballot Fraud

Many of you have come to me asking what the Republican Party of Virginia is doing about the potential of ballot fraud in mail in voting. Well earlier this week, RPV won a major suit against the Commonwealth and the Department of Elections.

Day for that ballot to be counted. However the State Board of Elections tried to ignore this requirement, and extend the postmark date. Fortunately Circuit Court Judge Bill Etheridge has ruled in favor of RPV and stated that any ballot which is mailed in must have a legible postmark reading November 3 or earlier to be counted. Meaning that the Democrats won't be able to dump a large number of absentee ballots starting November 4.

This is a major victory for RPV and for Election integrity. And will make it much more difficult for the Democratic Party to commit ballot fraud in Virginia. Under Rich Anderson, RPV is working hard to ensure that Trump and Gade have a fighting chance to Turn Virginia Red.

Hate Speech From the Democrats

Let's be honest, the rhetoric coming from the Democrats has gotten nastier and nastier in the past several years. American politics has always been a tough jungle, but that jungle was always left for candidates. I've been doing this since 1980, and the rhetoric was always harsh towards opposing candidates, but the activists and voters on both sides were always civil and respectful of each other. Never before was the harsh rhetoric used towards the party activists until recently.

The first time I ever really heard any Democrat say a nasty thing about GOP voters was Al Gore – when in 2000, he publicly stated that “all Republicans have an extra chromosome”. (Aka we're all suffering from Down's Syndrome aka we're all mentally disabled). They've only gotten worse over the years. Everything from Hilary Clinton calling us a “basket of deplorables” to last week Biden calling us all “chumps”. The lack of civility coming from Biden supporters and the Never Trumpers is borderline scary. Just recently, one Never Trumper who says that Trump and his supporters (aka you and I) are “morally bankrupt”. Another Biden supporter who actually thinks that Joe Biden is a gentieman, was wishing for the President to die (heard it myself – too bad I didn't have my voice recorder on) and said things so harsh about Trump supporters that even I was embarrassed. The words used cannot be put into print because they're so disgusting. Either or, this is what we are dealing with. These people are disgusting and are out of control. The only way they can be dealt with is to defeat them at the ballot box on November 3, and then be ever vigilant. We are in a fight for the heart and soul of this country, and they will not relent. Ergo neither can we relent. From now on for the foreseeable future, each election will be the most important of our lives.

If any of you having a Trump caravan or rally this weekend are confronted by an Indivisible Group or Antifa, do yourself a favor. Don't engage or interact with them. Do make sure your camera phone is working , and video record everything that they may say to you. That way, when Antifa or Indivisible tries to accuse us of physically confronting them, we

I will be at several events with you this weekend, and am looking forward to seeing you in the final few hours of this election cycle.

Thanks from the bottom of my heart to each of you for all the hard work you are doing, and are going to do. It is only with your help that we will take back Virginia!

I remain your servant

S John Massoud
