Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Slava Ukraini - Glory to Ukraine

We do not know what will occur in the war between Russia/Belarus and Ukraine. Will Ukraine hold out? Will the Russians and Belarussians (who are about to send their army in as well) take over the country? Only time and God will tell. What we do know is the following:

- 1) The former Soviet army which beat back the Nazi hoards is little more than a paper tiger. The Russian should have been able to walk all over the smaller and less well armed Ukrainian army. But because of arrogance, ineptitude, or a real weakness, the Russians have had their noses bloodied. Most likely the Russians have put in all their forces, if they had not, then why call in for the Belarussian army?

of innocent civilians. For many years, the Russians and Ukrainians didn't like each other much. The Russians referred to Ukrainians as their "little Slavic brothers". And the Ukrainians were jealous of Russia. It wasn't until Gorbachev and then Boris Yeltsin that there was a thawing between the 2 peoples. And the two nationalities started to think of each other as allies. This stopped once Putin took over in the early 2000's.

Putin went after Crimea, which was mostly ethnic Russian and had a history of being part of both nationalities - but in doing so, made it a point to offend ethnic Ukrainians. He called for the "de Nazification" of Ukraine, conveniently forgetting that Ukraine President Zelensky is Jewish. (NOTE TO ALL POLITICIANS - calling someone a Nazi, unless that person is a true supporter of Hitler and the Nazi ideology - is a horrible idea).

3) The Biden Regime, by propping up Vladimir Putin in purchasing 500,000 barrels of oil each day, isn't helping the situation. If this regime was serious about its foreign policy, they'd re-open the Keystone pipeline. This regime is not serious about foreign policy and about the safety of the world. If the Biden regime was serious, they would have implemented sanctions months ago against Russia so we would not be at this point. They'd also bankrupt Russia by re-opening the Keystone Pipeline. I'm no fan of John McCain, but he did have one great quip - Russia is a gas station, masquerading as a country. Take away their ability to export gas, and Russia will fail in a couple of weeks.

From The Federalist Online

A great article - about how Joe Biden supporters owe the rest of America an apology.

Just 8 months and 8 days until Republicans take back the US Capitol. We need you.

Thank you for allowing me to serve you as your Chair.
