Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Biden's Rant Last Night - Katie Britt's Response - and a Heroine for International Woman's Day!

Last night, Mr. Biden had another anger induced rant at the Congress and the American people. As the speech went on, he clearly stammered more and is clearly no longer able to carry out his constitutional responsibilities. However anyone who is intellectually honest can see this. How will people vote? I have no idea. Biden gave a rant similar to last night right before Election Day 2022, and we were horrified at how hateful it was. However this got Democrats out to vote - to the point where they won several close elections they should have lost. The moral is - DO NOT LET OUR COLLECTIVE GUARD DOWN! We

Katie Britt of Alabama gave the response. She clearly connected with people, and is a soft face to Biden's anger filled tirade. I loved it when Senator Britt said "Bless Your Heart". She was a bit emotional, which put me off at 1st, but the more I thought about it, the more Senator Britt is right to be emotional. It's our country that Mr. Biden and his regime are destroying.

Ben Cline also had something to say about Biden's SOTU rant. Ben was rather uplifting and hit the nail on the head. Here is Ben's response to that rant. https://fb.watch/qGm_WcrY_L/?mibextid=Nif5oz

For International Woman's Day - 2 Women We Can Honor

Each of us, who celebrate International Woman's Day, knows how important this day is. It is more a European holiday, but still an important day no matter. I'd like to take this time to honor 2 women, one of who you know if you live in the North Shenandoah Valley, the other will soon be a household name if you follow the WNBA.

Earlier this week, Caitlin Clark broke one of the oldest College Sports records – she broke Pete Maravich's record for points ever scored by a basketball player in college history. Caitlin Clark did an amazing thing. And she should be honored for this great achievement. However the radical leftists, in the name of feminism – are waging a cultural war against women's sports. They are trying to destroy women's sports by allowing biological men to participate in women's sports. (FYI - Pistol Pete Maravich was one of my favorite basketball players from my childhood, and he was one of the greatest men's basketball players in NCAA history).

One brave woman, Delegate Delores Oates of Warren County – House of Delegates 31st District (Warren, Clarke, Frederick County) tried to protect women's sports. She introduced HB1120, which would require any biological male from participating in women's sports. Aka ensuring that only women can participate in women's sports. Aka ensuring that Title IX stays intact.

The radical leftists who have taken over the Democrat party don't care about protecting women's sports, all they care about is inflicting their bizarre agenda on us all.

Delores' bill failed on a party line vote. However one day this bill will be passed. We Republicans do these things in honor of all women!
