Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Thanks to our Hero 1st Responders

This past week, our Shenandoah Valley was ravaged by wild fires, and several of our neighbors lost their homes. These were most prevalent in Shenandoah County and Page County. At least 5 homes were lost in Strasburg Junction, and more were lost in New Market. Even more were lost in Page County. We are very lucky to have such brave people in our local Police Departments, our Sheriff's Offices, and in our Fire Departments. I'd like to take a few minutes to honor all of our 1st Responders today, and offer a special shout out to Shenandoah County Sheriff Tim Carter and his deputies, Page County Sheriff Chad Cabbage and his deputies, Strasburg Police Chief Wayne Sager and the SPD, New Market Police Chief Chris Rinker and his officers, Shenandoah are safe because of these fine men and women. Please take a few minutes to thank each and every Deputy, Fireman/woman, or Police Officer. There are so many to thank here that it would be impossible to thank everyone or honor everyone. But do know that we averted a major disaster because of so many brave American men and women.

Mass Meeting Season Is About Over.

Tonight is the final Mass Meeting/Party Canvass of the season. Frederick County is having their Party Canvass tonight. Start time is 4 PM, and the location is the Millwood Fire Banquet Hall on Costello Drive in Winchester. Waynesboro's mass meeting was just canceled, and while Shenandoah County may still have a canvass to fill party seats, our list of Chair's is about complete.

For those of you who live in Frederick, please show up at the Millwood Fire Banquet Hall and vote for either Derek Adler or Gary Lofton.

Some Thoughts About More Funding for Ukraine

Contrary to what you may have been told, the fact is that the US government has shipped very little armaments to Ukraine. In fact, only 7% or so of the current allotted funding for Ukrainian weapons has been spent. Meaning that while Ukraine may have an arms shortage, but it is not because of a lack of funding. It is because the Biden regime is more interested in bashing Republicans than in getting arms to Ukraine. Don't believe me, read this: <https://thefederalist.com/2024/03/20/biden-doesnt-need-congress-to-get-urgent-aid-to-ukraine-so-why-is-he-blaming-republicans/>
