Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Go Woke – Go Broke! Diversity, Equity, and Inclusivity, Bud Light Edition

Ever since before I was a child, the average American saw Budweiser as the beer of the common American man and woman. Budweiser, Busch, Bud Light, has a transgender female (Dylan Mulvaney) as their chief sponsor.

The end result? Bud Light is losing a large amount of market share and has lost most of their best known endorsers and will soon lose market share. The DEI Industrial Complex, which basically exists to siphon off money from companies by scaring CEO's into submission, has struck again – this time ruining an American classic.

Why CEO's keep listening to the DEI Industrial Complex is beyond belief. Everything they touch, from Silicon Valley Bank on, becomes a mess.

Republicans Grow a Spine!

For far too long, too many on our side have keeled over when it came to fighting the leftists. Yet now we are starting to see real pushback from the GOP. After the Christian school in Tennessee was shot up by a transgender who had previously attended that school – members of the Tennessee State Legislature egged on protestors and got them to charge the Tennessee State Capitol. At least one of these rabble rousers – State Representative Justin Jones, publicly said that the mob should be allowed to take over. 3 of the Democrat State Legislators who led the mob were tried by the legislature, and 2 of them were removed.

And to add to our good luck, earlier this week in North Carolina, a Democrat State Representative switched parties, giving us a veto proof majority in the Legislature. This effectively makes Governor Roy Cooper a lame duck governor.

College athlete Riley Gaines, who took on the DEI Industrial Complex last year, was physically assaulted by a transgender activist. Ms. Gaines gave a speech to Turning Point USA and the Leadership Institute on the San Francisco State U campus, when she was held against her will by a group of transgender activists and struck multiple times by a man wearing a dress.

This just proves what we already knew – that in 2023, it is a lauded when biological male students assault a woman who disagree with them when it comes to women's rights.

Something About Our Local Elected Officials

What happens at the local level, is really just as important as what occurs at the federal and state levels. If we don't have good prosecutors, then we won't have safe streets. I will be highlighting a local elected in each newsletter from now until Election Day November 2023. Today I want to pay some tribute to Jared Moon, the Commonwealth Attorney from Rockbridge/Lexington/Buena Vista.

Mr. Moon has done an outstanding job prosecuting cases fairly, making sure that the victim's rights are remembered when a case goes to trial. For those of you who live in the Rockbridge Lexington Buena Vista region, please vote for Jared Moon this November for Commonwealth Attorney. (See picture above)

Thank you for allowing me to serve you as your Chair. Together we will take back Virginia

I remain
