Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Good News From the Supreme Court

Finally something we can all be happy about. The Supreme Court, on a 5-4 vote, refused to take up an emergency motion to block a Texas Heartbeat bill. The bill, which would allow for private citizens to sue abortion providers who perform an abortion after the heartbeat of the unborn baby can be detected, was signed into law by Governor Abbott earlier this year, and was upheld by lower courts.

This case will still likely be heard by the Higher Court, and there is no guarantee of what the Court will finally say. But if this bill is upheld, it would

If there is a disappointment here, it is that Chief Justice Roberts sided with the 3 liberal Justices. But let's be honest, is anyone really shocked?

Is a Woke Military the Reason Behind the Loss in Afghanistan?

For those of you who read the Patriot Newsletter frequently, you may remember an article I wrote talking about how the "foreign policy intelligentsia": failed us in Afghanistan because they had no idea about Afghan people think and operate and process information. This article in the Federalist Online News offers a different perspective, and one that should be discussed. Can you have a military which fundamentally hates the country it defends win a war?

<https://thefederalist.com/2021/09/02/is-it-any-surprise-that-a-military-that-believes-america-is-evil-botched-the-mission-in-afghanistan/>

I am not sure that the military lost this war. I remember General Schwarzkopf's brilliant press conference immediately after Desert Storm, when asked to rate the Iraqi army, and Stormin Norman said that it is tough to rate an army that does not believe in the mission and is only there with bayonets at their back.

But this was good reading nonetheless.

Team Biden is Gaslighting the Nation

It seems that nearly 75,000 Afghan's and their families applied for SIV's (Special Immigrant Visa), and only 8,500 of them got out. Meaning that Team Biden, which is crowing about this great evacuation as though it was the most amazing thing in human history, left behind over 65,000 Afghans who had helped out the US Army. Quite frankly, this is the biggest shame in modern US history. Never before had we left behind so many people - this does not include nearly 1,000 Americans who are stuck in Afghanistan and the Biden Regime left them to rot.
