Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Colorado Shooter ID's as "Non Binary", Uses They/Them Pronouns?

For days now, we've been hearing about how conservatives are to blame for the shooting at a nightclub in Colorado which caters to the gay and transgender community. It's all our fault they say. AOC actually went so far as to blame Lauren Boebert (Congresswoman in Colorado's 3rd District) for the shooting.

Got some bad news for these enlightened people. The accused shooter, Anderson Lee Aldrich, identifies as "non binary" (aka they don't ID as either male or female) and used They and Them as identifying pronouns. This according to the NY Times. Aldrich is referred to as Mx. Aldrich in the court filings.

Quite frankly, these people should be ashamed of themselves for how wrong they get everything. But then again, they really don't care about accuracy as long as they can blame us for something they did.

A few days ago, I was talking to a Trump hating Republican who actually blamed Donald Trump; for all the division in our society now. Must admit that with great pride, I informed this enlightened person that the division in this county has been happening for years now, and that I could date the first really nasty insult to then Vice President Al Gore in the mid 90s, when he said about Republicans "the extra chromosome right wing". GW then tried to get along with the racist liberals (YUGE MISTAKE), and then things got worse under Obama, who never met a conservative that he didn't label as a racist (or a cop he couldn't label as stupid). Suffice it to say, that Trump hating Republican called me a Trump apologist, but then could not answer with anything else, as he knew I was correct.

Don't blame ourselves for the division in this country. Blame the radical leftists for the division. Most of us would rather get along with our fellow neighbor.

Some Good News From November 8

Boebert won narrowly in Colorado, and we should get one more seat in California, with the possibility of winning Barbara Lee's old seat in California, a very Democratic seat.

Due to some rather strange events in Maricopa County Arizona on election day (polling locations having hour long issues - at least 2 locales in Arizona are now refusing to certify the election results. Good for them for standing up to the incompetence of Maricopa County and the Democrat machine. Will this overturn the Az Governor's race? Not likely, but one can always hope. I thank Kari Lake for not backing down, and taking the fight to these leftists.

Other candidates on the ballot in Arizona are taking up the fight against the corruption in Maricopa.

On a personal note, I want to thank each and everyone of you who have volunteered your time at the polls, or who have become elections officers or poll watchers. Those of you who have written letters to the editor, or who made phone calls or knocked doors, helped contribute to a great showing in the 6th Congressional District this past November. While we had a bad showing nationwide for reasons I've already explained in a previous newsletter, the fact is we had a great day inside CD 6. We ran quality candidates in nearly every race, and we won seats against incumbent Democrats in some very democratic locales.

Thank you for allowing me to serve you as your Chair. Together we will take back Virginia. More work is needed, and I hope that each of you are with me and ready for the fight!

I remain

your servant
