Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans:

How Each of Us Is a Warrior Against Ballot Fraud

Every day, I receive emails from people, asking what they can do to help turn back Virginia into a beautiful shade of red. For far too long, I've only been able to give words of encouragement, and to ask each of you to work hard for year 2021. But earlier this week, I received a fascinating email from Charlie Nave, Roanoke City GOP Chair and candidate for House District 11.

Charlie suggests that each Unit, and Member of each Unit, order a voter list from the Local Registrar once each month, and have members of each unit peruse the list for those who have moved or who have deceased or who may otherwise not be able to vote or have left, or possible bogus registrations (aka 30 people living in a factory building etc). Chris Marston, RPV General Counsel, says this is a very good start, and that if the local registrar is not amenable, then each Unit could have 3 Committee Members challenge the registrar in court.

Please talk to your local GOP Chairs and see if this is something they're interested in doing. The work is tedious yes, but my guess is that we could remove about 1500+ illegal voters from CD 6 itself, maybe more. For those of you who are detail oriented (something I am not) this could be a great service you offer to the future of the Republic. It's our Democracy, and we need to

A Sham Impeachment!

As most of you are aware, the US Senate started a sham impeachment earlier this week - trying to remove a president who has already left office. This has never happened in US History, impeaching a former President. For all of Joe Biden's talk about "Unity" all he and his regime have done is to wrench the insides of the American spirit.

Fortunately Jim Jordan has been there to remind everyone who will listen that when Trump asked people to protest on Capitol Hill, he asked them to do so "peacefully and patriotically". That automatically removes any doubt, Trump did not call for an insurrection, he asked people to protest, and a few did not listen to the President, and they broke the law, not our President.

Thank you Ben Cline

While the Democrats on Capitol Hill and around the US are losing their minds, reasonable people like our Congressman Ben Cline have been trying to do things to help the average American during these tough times. Thousands upon thousands of Americans have been the victims of fraud, having had claims filed using their names and Social Security numbers, with the benefits going to scam artists. Ben and many other Republican Congressmen have signed off on a letter to ask these claims be investigated fully and taking other steps to protect Virginia and US taxpayers from schemers. Thank you Ben Cline for being a voice of reason during these tough times.

While the Washington DC Democrats are trying to divide us against each other, Congressman Cline is trying to protect us from con artists who are using the pandemic to enrich themselves.

NBA's Mark Cuban

While all this is going on, Dallas Mavericks owner Mark Cuban decided to stop playing the National Anthem at his basketball games. The NBA which has seen its revenue decline sharply over the past year - not all of this due to COVID, is more and more being seen as a testing ground for leftist experimentation. Cuban, in his desire to never be outdone by the woke left, thought it would be a great idea to stop playing the National Anthem at Mavericks games. Until the NBA officially found out, and then declared that the Star Spangled Banner will be played at all games. Cuban - actually being embarrassed for once in his life, silently acquiesced and went along with the NBA edict.

My friends we have work to do. Let's go kick some liberal booty!
