Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

It's Getting Down to Crunch Time!

Early voting has already started. Here's what we know so far. In early in person voting, Republicans hold an early advantage in several key locales inside CD 6 and surrounding areas. Please consider voting early, we do this to ensure that no Democrat can steal our vote. Plus it will allow for the Youngkin campaign to do better targeting of swing voters who won't vote until election day.

I've been out the past few days door knocking in Strasburg and Strasburg Junction, and the enthusiasm is overwhelming. People are begging for

If you can't door knock, then please do some phone banking. If you can't phone bank, write a letter to the editor. Be a poll watcher or poll greeter or an elections officer. There are dozens of ways to get involved - history needs you now.

Team Youngkin was at an event in Verona this past Friday, and the enthusiasm was overwhelming. Youngkin was there to fire up the people of Augusta/Staunton/Waynesboro, and surrounding areas who want real change to come to Richmond. We had a couple hundred people show up to both vote and to get to work in returning Virginia to a lovely shade of red. A special thanks to Augusta GOP Vice Chair Marshall Pattie who put this event together. Marshall, you rock!

After the event in Augusta, I headed north down the Valley to Middletown, to give a speech to the GOP faithful there. This past week was a very moving moment for me, as seeing the procession for Sgt. Knauss was very tough - to see 13 lives wasted by this regime and this military brass. The truly sad thing is that this past weekend, General Milley and the foreign policy elite are sitting around at their cocktail parties in Great Falls and Georgetown and praising themselves on a job well done.

2 trillion wasted, lives wasted, 50 billion in equipment given to the Taliban, and a country which was a mess is now in a bigger mess than it was back in 2001. These people are beyond disgusting. There are no words. Please get involved - history needs you now.

Thank you for allowing me to serve you as your Chair. Together we will take back Virginia

your servant
