Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Convention Update From Yesterday

Dear friends,

Yesterday I announced to you that there would be a convention, as there was a challenge to Northern Region Vice Chair Randy Gilbert. Yesterday the challenger, Matt Leeds, dropped out. So the convention has been canceled, seeing as there are no contested positions and there is no other business to be discussed which would require a convention of the entire 6th Congressional District.

It has been one of the great honors of my life to lead the District Republican Party. I am humbled to serve each of you for another 2 years. We have many things which need to be accomplished. We must continue to take back Virginia and to put the Biden regime in their place. What they are doing to the fabric of the Republic is beyond despicable.

We need to make sure that our Richmond delegation has the tools necessary to assist Governor Youngkin. We also need to make sure that our legislators at Boards are more interested in the welfare of our children than how the Virginia Education Association wants things to be. And that each County Board of Supervisors and each City/Town Council understands that a government which governs best is that which governs least.

Onto Other Business

Your friend and mine - JP Sears, put out a great educational video yesterday on how Go Fund Me really works. For those of you who don't know JP Sears, he's a YouTube comic who spends 99% of his time bashing the radical left. JP has a rather wry sense of humor, and if you're not used to sarcasm - you may not understand all what he's saying. Personally I think that JP is the funniest man alive since Rodney Dangerfield.

JP's statement at the :26 mark just kills me "Your Money Our Choice".

Last week CBS News did an actual piece of real journalism and reported on how Bidenflation is hurting food banks, and how people who never needed a food bank before are now using them.

Things you won't be hearing in the left wing media: Seems that a Member of the US Capitol Hill Police was caught spying on a Republican Member of Congress. They've had to launch an investigation into the officer specifically and the Capitol Police as a whole.
