Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Victories in the Culture Wars

Contrary to what you may be told by the Corporate Media, the fact is that we are winning some significant victories in the culture wars. Have we lost a few? Honestly yes. But we have won some significant ones as well. Remember that the Corporate Media and the Progressive left wants you to think that things are over for us, and that we may as well shut up and get used to the left governing everything.

I'm here to tell you that the conservative movement is as alive and as vibrant as ever. Here are some things to think about and crow on if you choose:

1) Bud Light, after trying to shove Dylan Mulvaney down our throats as the typical "new woman", is losing more and more market share each day. Bud Light, which used to be the number one selling beer in the USA, has now dropped to 4th place in sales. Bud Light's parent company has seen their stock values collapse by going full on woke.

2) After the Country Music Network tried to boycott Jason Aldean's video Try That In a Small Town (an ode to the common man and woman), Mr. Aldean's sales have skyrocketed, making his song and video number 1 on the Country Music Charts!

3) Disney, not to be outdone, is seeing their sales off, and is on track to lose over a billion dollars this corporate year. Why? They keep shoving woke down our throats. Their latest fiasco, is the retelling of Snow White.

What Disney has done here is truly bizarre. One of the best parts of the original Snow White was the 7 Dwarfs. Disney has removed the 7 Dwarfs from the remake, taking their place with who knows what. And the reason it seems that Disney did this was to not offend "dwarfs" (sorry I don't know what the PC terms are anymore - so we'll use dwarf).

What does this do? Well it takes 7 jobs away from 7 dwarf actors, and gives them to actors of normal height, and also takes the jobs away from dwarf stuntmen/women. Why? So as to not offend anyone. Seems to me the only people who should be offended are dwarf actors who are losing jobs.

with a dwarf actor, and a member of the LGBT society who thinks that taking the jobs away from dwarf actors is a good thing. Or did, until he was forced to say to the dwarf actor that maybe his position is wrong, but it's still the right thing to do. That may sound nuts, but here is the video. It's a long one, but please do watch it. You'll see just how hard the mental gymnastics are for the woke left.

Disney is going to lose big time - again.

Is the war won? Nowhere near. But we are winning. We do need to keep our foot on the gas. We need to support businesses that do not cave to woke values. We need to make decisions on whether or not to support businesses that give into woke culture. I suggest that each of you consider doing the same. Personally I've boycotted many businesses that worship at the alter of wokeism. We need to elect people who share our values. We need to do this at all levels of government. Does no good to win at the federal level if we lose our localities. And we need to keep being involved. Each locality has Commissions and Boards which need local residents to serve on. Yet we do not serve, and the end result is that radical leftists serve and thus have a resume builder so they can run in the near future. You want to help your community? Serve on the local Planning Commission. Become an Elections Officer. Frederick County and other locales are screaming for them.

Banks in the United Kingdom are canceling accounts of people who don't go along with their globalism. If you think that can't happen to you - that corporate America won't do that to you - you're dead wrong. What the banks in London are now doing to Piers Morgan - they will do to each of us one day. The choice is ours. Some credit card companies have stopped doing business with gun owners in the USA. So have some banks. If you don't think each of us are next, then you're sadly mistaken. Bank of America has recently stated they won't give loans to any gun manufacturer who makes an AR-15 or any other weapon they deem dangerous. Wells Fargo recently stopped doing business with a well known gun dealer in Florida.

We have great Americans like Mollie Brannon who are serving admirably on their local Planning Commission (Mollie is in Frederick County). I could name

Thank you Mike Rickard

Strasburg resident Mike Rickard will be the next School Board Member for District 6 in Shenandoah County. Mike is a dear friend, who is active in his community. Mike saw that there was a need and stepped up to serve. The local Democrats were going to put up someone, but saw that with Mike's resume and positions on issues, that they would lose. So no one filed to run against Mike, and he will be the 4th Conservative vote to bring back sanity to the Shenandoah County School Board. Mike is in the middle of the above picture, with our mutual friend Daniel Martin of Frederick County and yours truly.

Thank you for allowing me to serve you as your Chair. Together we will take back Virginia

your servant
