We Have A Speaker!

Well friends, it took longer than it should have, but after a few weeks, we have a new Speaker. Mike Johnson of Louisiana was confirmed with nearly unanimous Republican support earlier this week. A bit about the new Speaker:

He supports the America 1st Agenda

His mentor is Jim Jordan

He served as a legal defender for Trump during both impeachment trials

Seems that Mr. Johnson is – to quote MSN, a nice guy who finished 1st. Mr. Johnson (aka Mr. Speaker) in the words of one Member of Congress, “confronts challenges with earnestness and humility”. The fact that the radicals who have taken over Congress are saying that Speaker Johnson was part of the “January 6 insurrection” means that they hate him, ergo he may be just fine.

And yes while the process was annoying, the fact is that the GOP conference has come out in better shape.

Coming Soon to the USA – Trans Age?

Already becoming a fad in parts of Canada, trans age is the new thing there. Seems that we can, according to the radicals, forget what a woman is. Now we can have adults participate in children’s events.

And for those of you new to this Newsletter, please read this, it’s an Op-Ed I wrote years ago on the trans fad – titled Call me Mark Moseley.

Sooner Or Later – 2 Trillion Deficits Yearly Will Add Up

In a recent article in The Federalist Online, Chris Jacobs talks about the upcoming 2 trillion deficit in the budget, and how we are saddling our children with costs they will never be able to pay back. A country can deal with and sort through many things, but bankruptcy is not one of them. Sooner or later, our chickens will come home to roost. Both parties are to blame for the $33 + trillion in debt that we owe. This means that each of us owes approximately $96,470 to the federal government.

Oddly enough, most of this debt is not owed to China or Japan, it is owed to the Federal Reserve. Approximately 2/3 of our national debt is owed to US interests, and there is a reckoning coming up which will

Raising taxes on the rich won’t put a dent in that amount. The only thing that will get us out of this debt bomb is to quit spending money on entitlements, in which our spending is rising by the hour. We can no longer take on any other spending and discretionary spending is out of control. For those who do not want to hear this, the alternative is 100x worse – the US being a 3rd world country.
