Colorado State Supreme Court Removes Trump From the Ballot

Yesterday afternoon, the Colorado Supreme Court disqualified Donald J Trump from their ballot, citing a 1868 law that prohibits “insurrectionists” from holding office. This is a dangerous precedent, and shows that the radical leftists who have taken over the Democrat party are hell bent on imposing a 1 party rule on the United States. As pretty much everyone who isn’t a Biden worshipper now knows, Donald Trump tried to calm down what occurred on January 6. He said so on Twitter, asking everyone to remain calm. How this is inciting a rebellion is beyond me.

This 4-3 ruling by the Colorado Supreme Court is just further proof that the Democrats will use a rigged court system to try and take over this country by judicial fiat.

FYI – I don’t agree with some of the opinions of this writer, but he is correct in saying that the Biden regime is trying to hijack democracy.

Wishing Each of You A Merry Christmas – and Why We Say Merry Christmas

a way to help unite the country, and in doing so, remembered that there was one person who was uniting to both Northerners and Southerners. And that was Jesus Christ. So to remind everyone on both sides that we had more in common than what had been divisive, President Grant asked Congress to make Christmas a national holiday. This was done in the early 1870's. June 28 1870 to be exact.

Currently there is a lot of pressure to remove Christ from Christmas. Since I was a little child, we've seen cards say "Seasons Greetings" instead of Merry Christmas. Or Happy Holidays, etc. Sorry but I obey the law, and the law of this land says that December 25 is Christmas.

So, given the fact that we Republicans like to obey the law, I want to take this time to wish each of you a Merry Christmas, and may all your wishes come true.

I remain

your servant
