Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

From the 6th and Surrounding Region - Congratulations to Delores Oates and Tim Griffin

This past weekend, Warren County Supervisor Delores Oates and Bedford County GOP Chairman Tim Griffin won their nomination processes in epic fashion. At her firehouse primary May 5, Delores Oates won her race with approximately 88% of the vote on Friday evening. Then on the Saturday May 5, Tim Griffin won his nomination at a convention, winning approximately 80% of the vote on the 1st ballot. Delores Oates is the nominee in the HD 31 District, which includes most of Warren County, all of Clarke, and the SE corner of Frederick County. Griffin will be running in the 53rd District, which includes a large part of Bedford, all of Amherst, and a piece of Nelson County. Both are safe Republican seats. (Delores Oates pic is above, Griffin's at the bottom)

While this article ran last month, it only came online in the past few days. Longtime Shenandoah County GOP Member Dennis Barlow (now School Board Member Barlow) wrote this article in the Northern Virginia Daily, exposing the hypocrisy of local Democrats, especially Shenandoah County Democrat Chair Brad Skipper.

Paul Stanley Tells It Like It Is - Re Transgenderism and Children

KISS Lead Singer and rhythm guitarist Paul Stanley tells it like it is on transgenderism - especially where it comes to children and forced surgeries and genital mutilation. Stanley said to Newsmax - "there ARE individuals who as adults may decide reassignment is their needed choice,"... "turning this into a game or parents normalizing it as some sort of natural alternative."
