Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Winsome Sears Tells Democrats Like It Is in Buena Vista – Calls Them Out For Their Racism

Republicans had a great day at the Labor Day Buena Vista Breakfast/Parade/Pavilion earlier this week. Hung Cao came by and gave the faithful of the RARC region why we need him as our Senator. Governor Youngkin marched in the parade alongside our GOP – RPV Chair Rich Anderson was there alongside Lt. Governor Winsome Sears as well. Thank you Delegates Terry Austin and Ellen Campbell as well as Senator Chris Head for stopping by.

After the breakfast and the parade – everyone went to the Pavilion for the annual speeches. What happened after Winsome Sears' speech was what everyone should remember. As Winsome finished her talk, a few local Democrats started yelling "Go home where you belong" (not shocking from the party that gave us slavery in the USA). Winsome then walked back up, and got in their faces in a way that more of us need to do..... I'd post what she said here, but it's best you see for yourself. Thank you again RPV Chair Rich Anderson for getting the video.

I should also take this time to thank Congressman Ben Cline for his attending both the Buena Vista event and then joining myself and over a dozen conservative activists at the Covington Labor Day Parade. And maybe more importantly, at the Buena Vista Labor Day Breakfast, Ben honored a long time tireless GOP activist, Jan Lowry of Rockbridge/Lexington. Jan has served the GOP community for many years, and has been their recording secretary for many years as well. Ben honored her service to the community by presenting to Jan a flag that had flown over the US Capitol. Both Ben and Jan got the standing ovations they deserve.

Citizen Journalists Inside CD6

Recently we have seen a large influx of activists who understand that we need to take better control of the Op-Ed pages of local newspapers. This was started by our friend Ros Poplar a few years back, and because of Ros' hard work, we now have several who regularly write for the Daily. We're also seeing Frederick/Winchester conservatives start to take back the Op-Ed pages of the Winchester Star. Among these are Al and Rhonda Torres, Donovan Quimby, and Lisa Callanan.

Here are a few of their recent contributions:

Please consider writing Op-Ed's or Letters to the Editor if you can. Every little bit helps. If you live in Harrisonburg/Rockingham, Staunton/Waynesboro/Augusta, or Lexington/Rockbridge, or Roanoke Valley, we need you to help take back the LTE/Op-Ed pages.

Don't Believe the Corporate Media – Trump Is Up!

Contrary to what they want us to think, Kamala Harris is in serious trouble. The corporate media wants you to think that the race is going to go to Kamala Harris, and that we all should just sit back and watch the inevitable. Unfortunately for Team Harris, the WDIV Detroit News Poll shows that Trump is ahead of Harris by more than 1%. This poll also had RFK Jr. still in the race. Most polling firms show that a clear majority of RFK supporters prefer Trump over Harris. Trump is also leading in most polls from Pennsylvania and Wisconsin as well as Georgia and Arizona. Assuming these polling numbers are correct, Trump is on path to get over 300 electoral votes.

Now this does not mean we can slack off, it means we need to work harder to get Trump, Ben Cline, and Hung Cao elected.
