Dear Friends and Fellow Republicans

Welcome to Joe Biden's America

Less than a week into Joe Biden's regime, he's already declared war on the working class of America.

On his first day in office, Beijing Biden killed the Keystone Pipeline, laying off thousands of American workers. Mr, Biden, who never met a special interest donor he didn't kowtow to, gave into Big Green, and now for the first time, we have a sitting President actually declaring war on the American worker.

Watch this short video, of a man who just lost his job on the Keystone Pipeline. This will wrench your heart.

Thank you Bill Etheridge

Yesterday, Circuit Court Judge Bill Etheridge found that the Virginia State Board saying for months now. Virginia's 13 electoral votes should never have been awarded.

Impeachment is D E A D!

Thank you Rand Paul for doing the right thing and calling for a vote on the constitutionality of impeachment of an ex President. By a 55-45 margin, the US Senate said that impeachment of an ex President is constitutional. However it takes 67 votes or 2/3 of the Senate to impeach a President. Ergo, impeachment is dead. Now Chucky Schumer may be foolish enough to go through with the impeachment proceedings, but there is no way now that an impeachment will succeed.

The US Senate is split 50-50. So 5 Republicans who have a political suicide wish supported the Democrats. And those "Republicans" are as follows:

Susan Collins of Maine
Lisa Murkowski of Alaska
Mitt Romney of Utah
Ben Sasse of Nebraska, and Pat Toomey of Pennsylvania.

The first 4 were not shocking, but Mr. Toomey really surprised me. Especially since he is up in 2022, in a state that he barely won in 2016. Given the fact that President Trump called for a peaceful protest, and he specifically said multiple times to be strong yet peaceful, and a few people didn't listen, that is not "incitement to insurrection". This whole thing is a farce by the Democratic National Committee to keep us angry. Which they are succeeding at rather well mind you.

IT'S A CONVENTION!

After over a month of haggling and alot of gnashing of teeth by RPV State Central, Chairman Rich Anderson shut down the whole controversy by saying we are going forward with a convention on May 1. We do not yet know if this will be an assembled or unassembled convention. But the nomination method will be a convention. Chairman Anderson is going forward with this, after 4 separate votes by State Central. He announced this in a letter on Monday night.

For those of you who are a bit geekish like moi - I had already put together a list of people for the "RPV Convention Committees", and am putting together a "Convention Team" for the 6th District. More on this to come. But assume that we will have a convention on Saturday May 1, and there will be ranked choice voting - same as the 2020 RPV Convention.

Thanks each of you who expressed your opinions on this matter, whether you supported primary or convention. Each of you was nice enough to express your thoughts in a positive manner, without any unnecessary drama. Quite frankly, State Central and the pro primary supporters on there would be better off with some of you than the team they had debating their position. And last but not least, thank you Chairman Anderson for your leadership on this issue. It's greatly appreciated.

As time goes on, I will be doing writeups on each candidate for State office for Governor, Lt, Governor, and AG. As the Chair of the District, I can not and will not endorse any candidate, nor will I suggest who you should vote for. What I will do is let everyone know what each candidate's voting record is on issues that matter to each of you, and let everyone make their own decisions. Having met most of these people on multiple occasions and spoken with each of them at least once (with one exception), I tend to think of all of the candidates as either current friends or people who I will be friends with very soon.

Thanks once again for all that each of you is doing or will be doing on behalf of the cause of Liberty.

I remain

your servant

JM
